“I believe in Spinoza’s God, Who reveals himself in the lawful harmony of the world not in a God who concerns himself with the fate and the doings of mankind.”

The Jewish religion is...a way of sublimating everyday existence.... It demands no act of faith – in the popular sense of the term – o

the part of its members. And for that reason there has never been a conflict between our religious outlook and the world outlook of science.”

Einstein, From “Science and God: A Dialogue,” Forum and Century 83 (June 1930), 373.

“Consequently he who wishes to attain to human perfection, must therefore first study Logic, next the various branches of Mathematics in their proper order, then Physics, and lastly Metaphysics.”
