

CAPTURE THE FLAG...AFIKOMEN

VS.

WHICH WONDER WILL WIN?

AFIKOMEN = Dessert in ancient Greek

AFIKOMEN = Freedom during Seder

Remember the stack of 3 matzot on the table? During seder we take the middle one and break it in half. The larger half = freedom is tucked away as the Afikomen. The smaller half = slavery is left to eat with maror and charoset. According to tradition, the Afikomen is the last thing to be eaten.

* Rules of play *

- Divide into two teams.
- Let the youngest kids lead the pack.
- Each team hides their Afikomen.
- First team to find it wins.

