

Jennifer researched a few organizations on line and chose to donate her Chanukah money to a local animal shelter. She received a thank you letter for her donation.

Sam gave a few dollars to a homeless man that stopped him on the street and asked him for some money for food.

Barbara is a millionaire. Every year she donates $10,000 to one organization that she favors.

Max donated $50,000 to an organization but is not happy about it. He only donate the money for a tax write off and wishes he didn't have to make that donation.

Bob donates $25 to his friends Crowdfunding campaign for a marathon anonymously.

Mary donates to an organization that helps Troubled teens receive high school degrees and vocational training.

Each Monday Bill puts a few cans on non perishable food into his community pantry for those in need to take.

Michelle and Peter are part of a giving circle and each contribute $500. Their collective amount goes to an organization they are not familiar with that is selected by the chair of the giving circle. The organization adds their names to their donor wall.

