

Take five minutes to journal about these questions. Then share with your chevrotah (learning partner). Feel free to respond with artwork rather than words - whatever works for you.

What do you love about being Jewish?

What makes you angry as a Jew? As a human?

What do you feel you are fighting against in just trying to be yourself?

What is something you hate that you have to deal with?

What would you like to celebrate about yourself?

What connects you to other Jews? To other people?

Who are your Jewish role models? Who are your role models that aren't Jewish?