

Finding (and sharing) Your Story

List 3 of the most memorable experiences you have had?

Why/how have you remembered these experiences?

Why were these experiences so important to you?

Who were the some of the people with you when you had your experiences? How were they important to the experience?

People	Role they played in the experience

What was the setting of this experience? Was it sunny, at night, raining? Were you indoors, outdoors?

What were some lessons you learned from this experience? What are they?

Can others learn lessons from your experience? What are they/could they be?

Can you codify your answers into a story about you? Please use the back of this page to write your story. Feel free to embellish the facts, make it funny, sad, etc. This is your story. "Your story is out there. It should be you who tells it." Dominic Colenso.
