

Personal Parking Lot: On Broadway, Identity Formation, and Being a Teen

Ice Breaker:

Is there a song, character or part of a Broadway musical that speaks to a piece of your identity? Has helped you better understand a piece of your identity? Who/what is it? how has it helped you better understand a piece of your identity.

Jagged Little Pill Text Study

1. What is resonating with you from this text study about working teen campers?
2. What questions are lingering for you from this text study about working with teen campers?
3. What are some ways you can help teens acknowledge the multiple emotions and identities they may be holding?

Dear Evan Hansen

1. What is resonating with you from this text study about working teen campers?
2. What questions are lingering for you from this text study about working with teen campers?
3. What are some ways that you can help teens feel seen and heard at camp?

Mean Girls

1. What is resonating with you from this text study about working teen campers?
2. What questions are lingering for you from this text study about working with teen campers?
3. What are some ways that you can help teens acknowledge the unique gifts and talents that teens bring to the table?

Reflection

1. How have these Broadway musicals added to your understanding of this generation of Teen Campers?
2. What resonated with you from this workshop?
3. What questions are still lingering for you?

