VISION: DIRECTION & GROWTH

Before continuing, please review this year's Cornerstone Fellowship Information Guide for details about expectations and various aspects of the Cornerstone Fellowship.

Camp leadership plays a crucial role in supporting the Supervisor, who is responsible for putting Cornerstone learning into action to spark Jewish culture change and growth within the camp community. Before the seminar, your camp will develop a framework that guides your Supervisor and Fellows in bringing their Cornerstone learnings back to camp in a way that aligns with your camp's unique mission and goals for the summer.

When was the last year your camp participated in the Cornerstone Fellowship program? *

Please select...

What aspects of your camp's Jewish programming and culture are you most proud of? *

Please provide your answer in 3-4 full sentences.

What opportunities for growth can you identify for your camp's Jewish programming and culture? *

Please provide your answer in 3-4 full sentences.

Please share your top three programmatic or community-oriented goals for summer 2026. For each, please share how you think your Cornerstone Fellows could help to advance that goal. *

Example: (1) Provide all camp staff with opportunities to recharge daily. I'd love to see the Fellows create resources that their peers could use to relax. (2) Enhance Shabbat afternoon programming. Fellows could be integral to bringing back new ideas for engaging our younger campers in Shabbat prayer. (3) Enhancing Israel education at camp. Fellows could create a program that could engage our camp in Israel programming beyond just Israel Day.

Please list 2-3 commitments you and your leadership team are prepared to make in order to ensure that these goals are met.

*

Example: (1) We are prepared to provide time during staff week to allow our Fellows to address this goal with our greater staff population. (2) We plan to give autonomy to our Supervisor and Fellows to revamp Friday night services.

Have there been, or do you anticipate, any major changes or obstacles leading up to summer 2025 that may impact your cohort's ability to successfully implement the Cornerstone program at camp this year?

*

Example: new camp leadership, difficulty recruiting enough Fellows, major program changes, etc.

SUPERVISOR INFORMATION

Your camp's Cornerstone Supervisor should be a representative from your camp who is a member of the year-round team, or someone returning to work in a supervisory role whose portfolio aligns with the goals of the Cornerstone Fellowship. They are uniquely positioned to help guide your Fellows through the Cornerstone seminar process, implement and evaluate their programs back at camp, and facilitate weekly cohort meetings during the summer.

Through Cornerstone, Supervisors can expect to bolster their resumes with professional development achievements, advance their coaching/mentoring and facilitation skills, and hone-in on their ability to give constructive feedback. Supervisors also have ample opportunities to network with other camp leaders and Cornerstone faculty.

FJC asks that you confirm your Supervisor in our Cohort Information form due on Friday, February 27, 2026. Our questions below aim to help you ideate on the ideal Supervisor for your camp and provide us with your initial thoughts.

While recruiting a Supervisor, please confirm they meet all necessary criteria updated and outlined in the Cornerstone Fellowship Information Guide.

What is the current status of your Supervisor selection process? *

- ☐ We have selected our Supervisor and can share a bit about them.
- ☐ We are still deciding who will be the best fit for the Supervisor role.

FELLOW INFORMATION

Ideal Fellows are individuals your camp wishes to invest in and who are Jewish role models for their peers. They do not need to identify as Jewish, but should be interested in personal growth, developing the skills of a Jewish educator, and bringing creativity and innovation to camp programming.

You will submit information about your Fellows in our Cohort Information form, due on February 27, 2026.

As you recruit Fellows, please confirm they meet all eligibility criteria outlined in the Cornerstone Fellowship Information Guide.

What is the current status of your Fellow selection ideation? Based on the criteria outlined in the Cornerstone Fellowship Information Guide: *

- ☐ I am very confident. I already have great people in mind who plan to return for Summer 2026.
- ☐ I am fairly confident, but not sure.
- ☐ I am concerned about finding the right people from our seasonal staff.

Tell us more about your response above. Whether you are feeling confident or unsure, we want to hear any context you are able to share. If you are anticipating challenges, please let us know how the FJC team can support you. *
