PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

This event is designed to bring together the region's overnight camp professionals for a day of learning, community-building, and professional growth.

Some highlights of our time together will include:

- Networking: This gathering will give folks the chance to network and connect with other Southeast Jewish Camp Professionals. Professionals who are newer to the field can learn from and connect with field veterans, and those who have been in the field for decades can hear fresh perspectives and ideas from new faces and voices.
- Marketing Content: Learn from Josh Kroo, Vice President of Marketing, North America Sparkling Flavors Brands at Coca-Cola. Josh brings years of marketing and branding experience and will share about how some of those same principles used in the corporate world can apply to marketing at camp.

- Sessions on Care & Community at Camp: Together with facilitators and artists Caroline Rothstein and Carlos Andrés Gómez, participants will engage in workshops on: developing a clear understanding of their camp's story; building tangible tools and skills for having difficult conversations at camp; cultivating a culture of wellness and belonging at camp; and allowing the byproducts of these skillsets to serve as a springboard for building sustainable staff retention.

WHERE:

Our day of programming will all take place at The Dupree Building (6120 Powers Ferry Rd NW, Atlanta, GA 30339).

WHEN:

The gathering will be on Thursday, February 26th, 2026. Attendees should arrive at 9:30 AM for check-in, coffee, and a light breakfast. Programming will start at 10:00 AM and end at 5:00 PM. In service of our goals to build and strengthen this community, we expect attendees to be present for the full length of the program.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- This program is for camp professionals who work in a year-round capacity for a Southeast Overnight Camp that is in FJC's network.
- We recommend that at least 2 people per camp attend the gathering, though more are very welcome. One of the attendees from each camp should be the Camp Director. We encourage you to bring as many members from your year-round team as you feel would benefit from the program.
- This program is perfect for those who work on-site at camp during the summer (i.e. directors, program coordinators, etc.), and is also well-suited to those who work directly on camp programming and operations, whether they spend their summers on site or not (i.e. development professionals, marketing/recruitment professionals, etc.).
- We welcome a range of levels of tenure/experience in the field and at your camp. Seasoned Executive Directors, new Assistant Directors, early-career professionals, veterans of the field – all are welcome and encouraged to attend.
- Because one of the main goals of this gathering is to build community as a region of Southeast Camp Professionals, we encourage you to come even if you may not know other people attending.

PROGRAM COSTS:

FJC is happy to be able to offer this program free of charge – there is no registration fee for this event! However, attendees and their camps are responsible for the cost of getting to/from Atlanta. All participants are responsible for booking their own travel arrangements.

FJC does have limited travel subsidy funds available on an as-needed basis. For those traveling locally (i.e. driving from within the Atlanta metro area), participants are responsible for their travel costs (i.e. gas, parking, mileage, etc.). For those flying to the gathering, if the financial burden of transportation/travel costs would prevent you from attending, you may indicate that you are seeking a travel subsidy when filling out the registration form. Please note that any subsidies that we can offer will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

What's Included (Costs Covered by FJC):

- All meals, snacks, and beverages during the program (Thursday breakfast, lunch, and snacks). All provided food will be kosher or vegetarian.
- For those traveling from out of town: Single-occupancy hotel accommodations for the night of Wednesday, February 25th at the Sonesta Atlanta Northwest Galleria – Marietta.
- All programming and activities during the run of the program – workshops, seminars, networking, and fun!
